

9/20 Meeting Minutes

- Ice breaker game!
- Committee sign up
 - Will be in this email at the bottom
 - There will also be a place to sign up for sps nationals
- SPS National!
 - As long as we have enough people sign up the Phys Department will be funding our membership
 - Benefits:
 - Access to SPS Publications, SPS job sites & career resources, funding to report or present research at conferences, scholarships and paid internships, and more!
 - You can get a subscription to the SPSToday today magazine and many other cool things
- Phys News of The Week!
 - New Mars Missions
 - The US, China, and UAE are all sending new missions to Mars
 - Each mission is slightly different, some include rovers, orbiters, and landers, or a mix of those
 - UAE will have no embargo period on it's data
- Big/Littles
 - Sign-ups were sent out on Tuesday but will also be included in this email
 - It's a fun system where the little can hang out with their big, ask them questions, get help, and all sorts of things
- Announcements
 - Big/Little signups due 9/17 (next thursday)
 - Big/Little reveal 9/24
 - Registration Prep 10/8
 - All-Physics Meeting 10/22
- Study Spaces
 - MG 3006 (The Box) capacity 2
 - MG 3008 (The Closet) capacity 3 (Will need to ask a phys prof to get a code)
- SPS Chapter Membership
 - Dues are $5 a semester or $10 a year
- Tutoring will be starting very soon!
 - The room will be announced soon and it will also be available over zoom
 - If you have completed 196 you may sign up for tutoring
 - The link will be included at the bottom
 - It also helps you qualify for Sigma Pi Sigma
- Faculty Spy Elections

- Michael Palucho was elected faculty spy!
- Demo
 - Cloud Chamber!